LOCAL.

Mr. Justice Scott and wife arrived on Monday's train and are registered at the Alberta.

J. F. Betts, M. L. A., of Prince Albert, will arrive on to-night's train on business connected with the L. O. F. of which organization he is high chief ranger.

W. S. Young, son of Harrison Young of this town, joined the Edmonton-Yukon party and left on Friday last. He will accompany the party throughout their journey.

A LETTER has been received by W. S. Robertson from the Cosgrove Concert Co. They are anxious to visit Edmonton again and play under the auspices of a local society.

J. B. SMITH, Q. C., of Calgary, came in on Monday's train to appear as counsel for T. H. B. Cochrane in the several suits which will come up for hearing against him at the present sitting of the court, in connection with the late general elections.

The surveyor general's office, Ottawa, has issued small police patrol maps, red lining the routes taken by Insp. Snyder on patrol last summer. Insp. Snyder's patrol last winter to Fort Resolution and return, and the track taken by Insp. Moodie on his present patrol, as far as Surgeon lake.

An advance copy of a map issued by the surveyor general's office of the department of Interior is to hand. The sheet which is 24 x 24, partly fills a long felt want for a map covering the northwestern part of the Dominion and showing the location of the numerous rivers and gold-bearing creeks lying throughout that region. Other and more complete copies are expected out shortly.

W. F. HAAG received a letter yesterday from his brother C. C. Haag, who is with the Fresno party at Fort St. John. Mr. Haag states that he, together with Walter Bissett, Ben Sawyer, J. P. Kelly and another of the Fresno party, and W. S. Johnstone, of Montreal, have made arrangements with a trader named Burbank to transport them and their outfits from St. John to the Nelson. They give Burbank their horses as payment, and on reaching the Nelson will build boats and proceed by water. The 200 mile trip from St. John to the Nelson will be made by dog sleigh. Mr. Haag states that from what they can gather, horses are of no use after the Nelson is reached, but the journey by boat down that river is comparatively easy. They have also received very encouraging reports of the prospects on the Liard from parties who have prospected and travelled along it. The remainder of the Fresno party are undecided as to their future course, a great many being handicapped by losing their horses. Mr. Haag's horses were of a much larger and stronger class than the others, and in consequence, they came through in good shape.

The prospectus has been issued of the Mackenzie River Klondike Expedition of Hamilton. The project is for a party which is not to exceed 50, exclusive of the staff, to go via Edmonton, Athabasca Landing and the Athabasca, Mackenzie and Porcupine rivers to the Klondike, early in the coming spring. Mr. Arthur H. H. Heming is to command the expedition and the staff is composed of Dr. James Anderson, surgeon; W. J. Skynner, mining instructor; H. Bastien, navigator; F. J. Heming, manager; E. C. Murton, secretary; and A. T. Duncan, treasurer. The details of the expedition have been carefully worked out. Mr. Skynner will instruct the travellers en route in mining matters, including the laws under which they will have to operate; guides will be procured; the boats will be especially constructed for the purpose; outfits can be procured at reduced rates from the management and in every way this appears to offer an excellent opportunity of getting to the Klondike by a practicable route. The Athabasca will probably open early in April and it will take about ten weeks to reach the diggings.

F. JACKSON and wife, of the Alberta, left on Wednesday's train on a visit to Banff.

A FANCY dress carnival will be held on the Thistle rink here on the evening of the 28th inst.

The type and part of the stock for the new French paper, "L'Ouest Canadien," shortly to be started here, arrived on last train.

The Presbyterian church choir will render, by request, the anthem "The heavens are telling," from Haydn's Creation, next Sunday evening.

W. C. RHODES and C. R. SNEYD, of the Molson's bank, are expected in on to-night's train. Mr. Rhodes was formerly manager of the bank's Woodstock branch.

The new dynamo for the electric light company arrived on Tuesday's train. The company expect to have the lights on again by Saturday night or Sunday.

E. CAMUS and wife arrived on last train and are registered at the Alberta. Mr. Camus is one of the Alaska, Yukon and Trading Co's, boat builders. His wife will accompany him to the Yukon on the first boat through.

FOR sales for the last week have been: Thos. Houston, for J. Ullman & Co., from R. Logan, $934.00; from traders, $74.40, and $85.35. Ross Bros from Alex. McCordier of the Athabasca, $160.65 from Pierre Gravel, $811.00; in small lots $35.00.

J. LUBBOCK and Ben. Wilson have purchased a large portion of Alf. Brown's livery outfit and rented his stable for three years. They will conduct the business in future in the name of Lubbock & Wilson. Mr. Brown leaves for the Klondike in the spring, going overland by pack train.

MESSRS. HESCOCK and Bryan, of North Dakota, and Arthur Dando, of this town started for the Yukon to-day. They go by way of the Landing and Lesser Slave lake to Fort St. John, transporting their outfit on bob sleighs to that point. They take eight horses and two sleighs.

THOMPSON, CODVILLE & Co. have opened their new wholesale grocery here, in the Robertson block, with W. S. Robertson as manager. The firm are putting in a large stock of goods to prepare for the spring rush of business. A large and varied stock has already arrived and further consignments are arriving on every train.

MESSRS. JAS. SPURGEON and John Link, who came from Chicago about two weeks ago and went on to the Landing, are reported to have given a contract to Woods & McNeill, of that place, to build for them for use on the Athabasca and Mackenzie rivers, a large steam boat, sixty feet long by eleven wide. The boat is to be handsomely finished in hardwood and very complete throughout and will be used as a passenger boat. Twelve other members of Messrs. Spurgeon and Link's party are expected in shortly.

AN application, with Messrs. Harris, Trueman, Rolf and Austin, late of the Clatsop-Yukon party, as plaintiffs, and Messrs. Clatworthy, Harvey, Freeling, Bennett, Stephen, Maloney and Francis, also of the same party, as defendants, came up before Judge Bouleau in chambers at Calgary last night, and was adjourned to come up again here. The application was for an order of dissolution of the partnership agreement entered into in England, and for a distribution of the outfit of the expedition. On account of a disagreement the party has divided and formed into two smaller parties.

THE hockey match between the Shamrocks and Thistles, played on the Thistle rink here yesterday afternoon, was the best exhibition of hockey put up this year by these teams, and, though the Thistles were again defeated, by a score of 5 to 4, they have no cause to feel discouraged as their play showed marked improvement and the beneficial results of practice. The game was anyone's until the whistle blew. The home team was strengthened by the addition of Benson at point and Gay on the forward line. The Shamrock's team was also slightly changed since they last played here. The game was not one in the regular schedule arranged, but more as a practice match.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, JANUARY 20TH 1898

OUR APOLOGIES.

THE GLOBE presents the imputation that it is booming any route to the Klondike, and declares it is utterly untrue, as stated by the BULLETIN, that it has advocated cash assistance to the Teelin lake route. Accepting the Globe's statement for the moment, is that a proper position for a leading journal to take on a question of millions to its readers and country? Parliament is about to meet, action is about to be taken in regard to the development of the Yukon, and yet the Globe has no opinions as to how that development can best be secured. It has very definite opinions on the question of royalties and reserves. No doubt when the Yukon mines have been so regulated that the owners of the Globe have the same lead pipe cinch on the cream of the country as they had on the Crow's Nest coal mines, the Globe will be as ready to devote its columns for a whole year to persuading the public to subsidize a means of developing those properties. In view of the stand taken by that paper, the BULLETIN feels to apologize for having used the words "cur of the C. P. R." in reference to the Globe, and regrets that it was led into such a libelous comparison on the canine race. A cur may be cowardly but is never treacherous.

ADVERTISING DID IT.

"To the Klondike gold fields of the Yukon, by the Canadian Pacific railway" is the title of a neat pamphlet in red and gold cover. Seven routes to the Yukon and the Edmonton routes figure together as No. 6. The information given is accurate and to the point. The "See" branch of the C. P. R. makes a leading feature of the Edmonton route in its advertising matter. It was announced recently from Ottawa that the Canadian government would take measures to develop the Stikine river and Edmonton routes to the Yukon. Joseph Ladue's book on the Yukon gives particulars as to the Edmonton route. The spring number of the Dry Goods Review makes the Edmonton route its leading feature. The Hamilton Spectator and the Toronto Mail are advocating the Edmonton route strongly and even the Globe gives a column to its description. Parties are arriving on every train preparing for an early start, and every thing points to a large share of the season's rush coming this way. The BULLETIN is not too modest to claim that a large share of the credit for having secured the recognition of the Edmonton routes by the general public, the C. P. R. and the government was due to persistent advertising by and through it. This is a plain case of advertising that pays—in which the local paper is of good money value to the locality.

JUDGE TIPTON ON NORTH ALBERTA.

The Winnipeg Nor-West, of the 14th inst. has a two column article reproducing a letter written by Ex-Judge Tipton, late of Omaha, but now of South Edmonton, to a friend in the States.

Judge Tipton states in the course of his letter: "I came here last February with a view to securing a gold mining claim, as my principal object was to see the country and mining claim that is one of the very best on the river, and when we got fixed with the proper mining machinery to operate it to advantage it will make us plenty of money. I also secured a homestead of 160 acres, adjoining my mining claim. Our homestead is right on the bank of the south branch of the Saskatchewan river at Big Island and overlooks our mining claim from the front door. We have a splendid coal mine on our homestead, only about 400 yards from the house. It is near the river and we have made considerable money furnishing coal for mining dredges already, and are now getting the mine developed so that we can make a good deal more next year. There will be considerable hauling from South Edmonton to-morrow, and we expect to be able to sell all the coal we can get out this winter. I only got two acres broken on our homestead last spring, but next spring we want to clear and break about 15 or twenty acres. What we broke this spring will raise all our potatoes and some wheat, oats or barley besides, so that while we all realize that we are a long way from the land of our birth, and under a foreign flag, we don't care. We have a good comfortable home, lots of wood and coal, and plenty to eat. We have no rent to pay, and no need to buy, and won't be long until we have our land improved and have a good farm, and owe nobody a cent for it. All we have to do is to live on it for three years from the time we took it, for six months in the year, and then we get a patent for it and then it's ours free from debt, free from execution and everything else. Last spring the snow went off about the 15th of April, and in a very few days farmers were seeding, and we had a finer spring than I ever saw anywhere. The atmosphere was dry and pleasant. The principal crops are grain, wheat, oats and barley. The principal wheat is spring wheat, although they are commencing to sow fall wheat and find it does well. All kinds of vegetables grow luxuriantly here, especially potatoes and cabbages. I have seen I came here that as many as four hundred bushels of potatoes to the acre could be grown. I can now testify that it is true, because I raised one hundred bushels of potatoes on a quarter of an acre, and I don't think the ground was exceptionally favorable for it either. One of the principal industries of the country is going to be cattle raising. Cattle are turned out here in the spring soon after the snow goes off, and they come up in the fall beef fat. Fall pasture lasts until snow comes and this year that came on the 3rd of November, so that you see seasons here are not much shorter than in Iowa and Nebraska. Besides that there is no such thing here as pastures drying up in the summer as I have seen in Iowa, Illinois or Nebraska, so that they had to commence feeding in August and September. Suffice for me to say in conclusion that I am glad that I am here. I am happier and better contented. I am out in the wild country and close to nature and have my family with me in good health. There is land open for homestead entry here, yet and land can be bought of the railway company on long time and low rate of interest for $3 per acre. But common sense and the experience I have had in the different parts of the world teach me that this condition cannot last long, expect to see the day when this land will bring from $25 to $30 per acre. The soil is strong and productive and will produce twice as much per acre as Nebraska land. Now with the fine climate and abundance of water, and with plenty of wood, coal and building timber on every hand, what is to hinder this from outstripping the oldest competitors for natural greatness and prosperity? There is a good opening here for anybody in any capacity, if they only want to come and go to work with a will and a determination.

THE LIARD RIVER.

W. J. McLean, a former chief factor of the Hudson's Bay Company, who was stationed for ten years in the Liard river district, was interviewed a few days ago by a representative of the Winnipeg Free Press and gave the following information concerning that country.

Asked as to the advantages of the country as an agricultural region, he said: "It is not as desirable for farming purposes, but it is an auriferous country, and coming prominently before the world now."

"Is there any good timber on the Liard?"
"Yes; on both the west and east branches of the Liard river there is very valuable timber, but unless something is done to protect it, it will soon be destroyed by fire, and the first fire that the country is likely to become a highway for miners going into that country."

"What is the nature of the country along the Liard and Nelson rivers?"

"The country is well wooded in parts, on the east side of the former river, and mountainous on the west side. The country along the Nelson or east branch of the Liard is something similar."

"Do you think it possible to get into the upper part of the Liard with horses by the Peace river route?"

"I cannot say with certainty, as the country lying between Fort St. John and the Liard has not yet, to my knowledge, been explored for the purpose of travelling through it with horses. I expect that Lord Avonmore's party will decide that matter. I was pleased to see the editorial in the Free Press of Monday morning, pointing out the great necessity of protecting the timbers of the country which is of very great importance, indeed."

"Is the region of the Liard very rich in game and fur-bearing animals?"

"Not particularly so."

"Are game and fur-bearing animals being exterminated for want of protection?"

"I do not think so; the officers of the Hudson's Bay Company are so deeply interested in the fur-bearing animals and game of the country over which their operations extend, that they do all they can to prevent the killing of valuable animals and birds out of season."

This brought the interview to a close, as Mr. McLean was called away. In speaking of the fine weather he stated that in general the weather between Edmonton and the Liard river resembled very much that of Manitoba.

MANAWAN.

J. Graham, of Clover Bar, was in this district lately buying cattle. A buyer from Limestone lake is also here and two from near Wetaskiwin. The annual meeting of Manawan school district was held on Thursday, 6th of Jan. Wm. Cinnamon was elected trustee in place of S. Richardson, who retires. The Whitford literary society has commenced to hold its fortnightly meetings. The Rev. A. Forbes, Mrs. Forbes and Miss Ross, of Fort Saskatchewan, passed through on their way to Saddle Lake, where Mr. Forbes will give the scholars and others a treat in the shape of a magic lantern entertainment. Mr. Forbes has kindly offered to show his views at Manawan school on his return, on Friday. Mr. McKittrick, teacher at Sturgeon river, passed through today on a visit to his brother at Saddle Lake. Jan. 12, '98.

FORT SASKATCHEWAN.

Correspondence: At the annual meeting of the ratepayers of this school district, Mr. Moret was elected trustee in place of Mr. Cunningham retiring. The board now consists of Messrs. Grindley, Adamson and Moret. At a meeting of the trustees, held later, Mr. Adamson was appointed chairman and secretary of the board. Mr. Montgomery was appointed treasurer and auditor, and instructed to assess at once. We hear that the grain buyers who have been here for the last month are going to stop buying as the amount of grain to be bought here does not warrant their staying on. The roads to Edmonton are too good and the wily farmer would rather draw his own grain and get the difference in price. The only chance for grain to go to the better market. In the last Territorial Gazette Mr. Thompson's resignation of his appointment as issuer of marriage licenses appears. Mr. L. Adamson has been appointed in his stead. Jan. 17, '98.

ATHABASCA LANDING.

Ed. Williams returned a few days ago from the Pelican Rapids, where he had gone to bring up Green Bros. of the Green, Lancaster, Heilder and Wilson, party en route to Klondike. The party have divided building a York boat and the purpose of proceeding down the Athabasca which they will proceed down the Athabasca on the opening of navigation in the spring. On his return trip he met Insp. B. O'Leary and his police patrol. Mr. Williams reports travel good along the river, as far as he went, the ice Pelican rapids, he met no obstacles in the way of his even ice. W. Hoole made a successful trip as far down as House river, where he had gone with three loads of fish for the police patrol. The Meriwether party are comfortably camped at Grand Rapids, seemingly unconscious of the commotion their reported destitute condition around in the outside world. Mr. Hoole made the round trip in fourteen days. Constable Dunn is busy getting out material for the erection of his board ing house or hotel. The work is being done rapidly through. Fraser's port able saw mill is running at full blast, turning out lumber for the construction of boats, and buildings in the spring. The Hamilton party have moved up here from their camp at six mile Island and are building a York boat with which to proceed down the river at open water. Colin Johnston is busy manufacturing boats for the Klondike trade. He expects to turn out a boat a week from now until the ice leaves.

Ed. Williams has had numerous letters regarding accommodation at his stopping place, situated a mile down the Athabasca trail. When the rush commences business promises to boom.

ST. ALBERT

Is a good business town nine miles north-west of Edmonton, directly on the road to the Great Gold Fields of the Peace, Liard and Pelly rivers and beyond.

There are several large establishments here, including Stores, Butchers, Hotels, Blacksmiths and Freighters.

Intending Gold-seekers are advised to come here, for living is cheap, reliable information from the natives of the country may be had for nothing, and this is the last outfitting point for the Klondyke.

Packhorses to any number can be bought here cheap, and encampments with abundance of wood and water are to be found everywhere.

BEAVER CREEK ENTERTAINMENT.

Correspondence: A very social gathering and entertainment was held in Beaver Creek school house on New Year's eve. About a hundred of an audience were present, and quite a crowd of children, all eager for the fruit hanging on a beautiful Christmas tree, said fruit having been brought to the young ones by old Santa Claus. Supper was served and supplied by a few ladies of Beaver Creek, whose kindness and courtesy was much appreciated. Supper commenced at 6 p. m. and to see the amount of over sufficiency in the food line, was apt to make one wish for a few hungry Klondikers. Our genial M. L. A. says that the Klondike is just a little way off from here, only a short distance, close on fifteen hundred miles, and that isn't much, yet none of them were present at the supper. Mr. A. Holmes was chairman, and after supper spoke a few words of introduction and good wishes for the visitors from a distance, and then introduced the programme, which was quite varied and entertaining. Songs, readings, recitations were given, also instrumental music, Mrs. Holmes presiding at the organ. Mr. A. Galway, guitar, and Mr. Kemack, violin, all three adding much to the pleasure of the evening. The duet by Mr. Galway and Mr. Kemack, "The Mocking Bird," was professionally done. The readings and recitations, more especially of Willie Campbell, Maud McGee and Hattie Riley, showed clearly the benefit of the teaching administered in the Northwest schools by the board of instruction, Regina. All the children's performances (about twenty) were surprisingly well done. The singing of Miss May Harris, in the duet with her sister Ruth, was very good. The duet was "The Hielan' Laddie." Miss Knapp sang feelingly, showing training in enunciation and distinctness of notes. Mr. Galway accompanied on guitar. Mr. Fluker, Beaver Hills, addressed the audience in a few kindly words, remarking on the many bright and healthy young faces he saw before him, also that the climate of the Northwest was beneficial to the development of youth and beauty. Mr. Maitland's singing of Burns' "O' a' the airts the win' can blaw," of "Annie Laurie," and two dark songs, viz: "Round de Meadows," and "Dickie," were much appreciated. The recitations of Mr. W. Hackett, and more especially of Mrs. W. Hackett, were very good indeed, "been there before," as the expression has it. To Mr. Galway belongs all praise for organizing and carrying out so successfully the entertainment, while to Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. McGee, Mrs. Alex Hackett and other lady friends of the district, belong the thanks for the dainty dishes set before the visitors. Mr. McGee, Mr. Campbell, Mr. Galway and Mr. Frank Bebee distributed Santa Claus' Christmas gifts, which were many and beautiful. "The Sweet By and By," was sung by all, Mrs. Holmes accompanist, and thus closed a very enjoyable and happy meeting, the closing at 9 a. m.
